A banner advertisement for Medscape's online CME. On the left, a male doctor in a white coat is shown from the chest up, looking towards the right. The background of the banner is light blue with a repeating pattern of the text "free CME" in a light blue, sans-serif font. Overlaid on this background is the text "Online CME from Medscape" in a dark blue, bold, sans-serif font. To the right of this, a dark blue horizontal bar contains the text "Instant access to FREE CME activities" in white, bold, sans-serif font. Below this bar, the text "in 25+ specialties" is written in a purple, italicized, sans-serif font.
